

Title I School-Level Parent and family Engagement Policy

Lodi Middle School
2025-2026

2.0 With approval from the local governing board, Lodi Middle School has jointly developed with, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy, agreed upon by such parents, and updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school. (EC Section 11503; 20 United States Code [U.S.C.] Section [§] 6318[b][1-4]) [Describe how the school Jointly develops with, and distributes to, parents and family members of Title I students a written parent and family engagement policy.]

Lodi Middle School has developed a written Title I parental involvement policy with input from Title I parents. Lodi Middle annually involves parents in a joint development and agreement of the policy, which is reviewed as part of the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) through site advisory groups, such as School Site Council (SSC) and our English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC). The policy has been distributed to parents and describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements:

- * Feedback from parents received at ELAC and School Site Council
- * Parent survey results which provide additional input
- * Communication with staff and parents distributed via a handout

2.1 Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

The school-level parent and family engagement policy shall describe the means for how Lodi Middle School school shall carry out the following requirements: (20 U.S.C. § 6318[b][1])

- a) The school convenes an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents of participating children shall be invited to attend and encouraged to attend, to inform parents and family members of their school's participation in the Title I program and to explain the requirements, and the right of the parents to be involved. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][1])

[Briefly describe or list the activities the school will implement to address this requirement.]

During the first month of the school year, a Back To School Night meeting was held (8/9/23) by the principal and other staff members to inform parents about the Title I requirements and parental involvement.

- b) The school offers a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide, with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parental involvement. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][2])

Parent meetings and conferences are held throughout the school year and are offered on a flexible schedule to assist parents.

- c) The school involves parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I program, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][3])

The Lodi Middle Parental Involvement Policy and the School-Parent Compact are reviewed annually by the School Site Council (SSC), English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC) and school Leadership Team. The Title 1 program is reviewed as part of an annual review with all groups. The parent and staff input is vital in revising programs.

d) The school provides parents of participating children with the following:

i. Timely information about the Title I program. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][4][A])

[Briefly describe or list the activities the school will implement to address this requirement.]

The newsletter is distributed through:

* Email sent through Blackboard Connect

ii. A description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging state academic standards. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][4][B])

The curricula offered at Lodi Middle School are Board approved. Curriculum materials are based on state academic standards and are used with fidelity. Curriculum in subjects is assessed in accordance with the curriculum programs and through district benchmark assessments. Data from these assessments is used to drive instruction. A school-wide Parent Conference Night is held in the second quarter and requested parent conferences are offered throughout the year. Student progress in relation to state and local standards is explained to parents including grade-level expectations for proficiency and interventions available to students in subject areas needed.

iii. If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][4][C])

Lodi Middle School has an open-door policy for parents to meet with teachers, staff, and administration. The school's responsibility is to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction. The parents' responsibility to support their children's learning.

e) If the schoolwide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school submits any parent comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency (LEA). (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][5])

[Briefly describe or list the activities the school will implement to address this requirement.]

Lodi Middle will submit all written documentation of parent comments that reflect the program is not satisfactory to the local education agency (LEA).

2.2 Building Capacity for Involvement

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, each school and local educational agency assisted under Title I, Part A shall carry out the following requirements: (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e])

a) The school provides assistance to parents of children served by the school or LEA, as appropriate, in understanding such topics as the challenging state academic standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of Title I, Part A, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e][1])

[Briefly describe or list the activities the school will implement to address this requirement.]

Lodi Middle School engages Title I parents in meaningful interactions with the school. It supports a partnership among staff, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement. To help reach these goals, the school does the following:

Assists Title I parents in understanding academic content standards, the curriculum, assessments, student proficiency levels, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children.

- * Parent information meetings are held throughout the school year to discuss the curriculum.
- * Progress reports are sent out at the mid-point of each quarter to parents.
- * Report cards are sent quarterly.
- * Parent conferences and meetings assist parents in building capacity for involvement.

- b) The school provides materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e][2])

Lodi Middle School provides 7th grade Orientation Day, Back To School Night, Parent Conference Night, and access to student grades.

- c) The school educates teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e][3])

Staff at Lodi Middle School is educated in the value of parent contributions and partnerships at various staff meetings throughout the year.

- d) The school, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinates and integrates parent involvement programs and activities with other federal, state, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conducts other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e][4])
